NFL Concussion Litigation

On October 6, 2014, MoloLamken LLP filed an Objection to the proposed Settlement agreement on behalf of seven former NFL players because the Settlement is unfair, inadequate, and unreasonable.

These seven players are collegiate All-Americans, team captains, Pro-Bowlers, and Super Bowl Champions who played on average eight years in the NFL. On their behalf we previously criticized the Settlement through earlier court filings accessible below. Among the challenges to the Settlement that we raise are:

- ▶ Players who suffered from CTE and died before July 7, 2014 can receive up to $4 million – but no compensation is paid for all current and future cases of CTE;
- ▶ Players who suffer a single traumatic brain injury or stroke outside of football have any compensation reduced by 75%;
- ▶ Time playing in NFL Europe does not qualify as an "eligible" reason for which compensation is paid, yet all NFL Europe veterans waive their rights to pursue a claim; and
- ▶ Players who do qualify for compensation must survive a complex claim submission, evaluation, and appeal process that could result in players being denied any compensation.

The Court has set an October 14, 2014 deadline for any Objection or opt-out from the proposed settlement class. The details of how to object or opt out can be found in the Court's July 7, 2014 Order or at the Class Action Administrator's website, linked below.

Former NFL players and their family members who decide to object are invited to review our Objection. If you support our Objection, we encourage you to let the Court know. We include below a form that can assist you in objecting, which you can access by clicking Join in the Objection.

Note that objections must be postmarked no later than October 14, 2014.
